

Chaperone Guidelines 2020 PRYP Convention

Be a Spiritual Role Model

Please read the Objectives and Methods of Chaperoning a PRYP Convention.

Devotions

In all programs, discussions, and devotions, leaders and chaperones are to use only the KJV Bible translation. All prayers should be reverent and respectful to our Heavenly Father. Lead nightly devotions in your room with your group. Encourage the young people to participate in devotions but don't require it of them. No one should feel pressured.

Quiet Time

Quiet time varies from 10:30 pm - midnight depending on the day. Please refer to your convention schedule for details on each day. Once quiet time begins, all conventioners must remain in their rooms until breakfast. Each chaperone is responsible for their group during this time and must ensure they are properly rested for the following day. Anyone found outside during quiet time may be reported to the discipline committee.

Convention Rules

Chaperones and conventioners must abide by the convention rules. These include your appearance, conduct, and the "No Smoking" rule. Chaperone t-shirts are not to be ripped or changed in anyway. You are to stay on the Lake Williamson Christian Center grounds. You are expected to observe and report any misconduct. Chaperones are not allowed to date conventioners.

Discipline Committee

Chaperones are not expected to discipline conventioners. If you see or are aware of a problem, contact the discipline committee and they will handle it. The committee is made up of Rev. Haak, Rick Wieringa, & Kevin Timmerman and one Fed Board member to be determined.

Activities

Team Leaders and helpers will be assigned, but all the chaperones are expected to help with the activities and serve the conventioners as needed.

Enjoy your time with the Conventioners!

Objectives and Methods of Chaperoning a PRYP Convention

Compiled by Eldon Brock in a CHRISTIAN CAMPING
(Edited by Rev. VO)

OBJECTIVE:

1. The glory and honor of God and of His Son, Jesus Christ.
 1. Whatsoever ye do in work or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him. (Col. 3:17)
 2. Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men. (Col. 3:23)
2. Help the conventioneer
 1. The Convention is for the young people. It is not necessarily for the convenience, ease, or enjoyment of the chaperones.
 2. By providing edifying and satisfying experiences in lectures, bible studies, devotions, discussion groups, sports, nature, and fun.
 3. Therefore, the chaperones are to be ready and available to help the conventionees...
 1. Express themselves in legitimate ways
 2. Face their need for personal and spiritual growth
 3. Acknowledge Jesus Christ to be their Savior and Lord.
 4. Recognize the Bible as the only reliable source book for faith and life.

IDEAS FOR MINISTERING EFFECTIVELY TO THE CONVENTIONEERS:

1. Be a good example, demonstrating the reality of Jesus Christ by conduct and attitude (Phil. 4:9)
 1. Be attentive to camp policy and church program.
 2. Be cooperative with leadership.
2. Be with the conventionees; not separated or segregated from them.
3. Respect each conventioneer (as one for whom Christ died).
 1. Protect the emotional safety of each person.

2. Demonstrate love and concern for each conventioneer by getting acquainted with the needs and interests of each and leading them accordingly.
4. Instruct in devotions
 1. Personalize the devotions according to age group characteristics, prior spiritual growth, and the conventioneer's practical needs.
 2. Lead them in prayer asking for understanding and help to overcome a problem
5. Anticipate problems and try to motivate the conventionees to positive and enjoyable actions. Be a leader of good things.
6. Use the Bible as your authority to present Christ's Lordship, not yours.
7. Give personal attention to prayer: for self and the conventionees.
8. Chaperones must be consecrated; concerned; compassionate; competent; cooperative.

SUGGESTIONS FOR DEVOTIONS:

1. Review the day and matters for prayer which arise from it.
2. Review the speeches, discussion groups, or sectionals and make those matters for prayer.
3. Remember their families and churches in prayer. Ask if there are matters for prayer in their congregations.
4. Encourage them to lead in prayer: 3-5 each night.
