

2024 CONVENTION RULES

Convention week is intended to be a time of spiritual enrichment and fellowship for the young people of our denomination. We believe that all conventioners know what is expected of them. However, we all need guidelines to govern us at times. As host churches, Cornerstone Protestant Reformed Church and Peace Protestant Reformed Church, we require all conventioners and chaperones to abide by these rules so we can honor Christ, respect each other, and have an enjoyable time.

- Choice of clothing for all events, including swimming and the banquet, will be modest and reflect that the wearer desires to honor God and shine the light of Christ.
 - For Women: Proper swim attire (full covering bottoms and no bare midriffs); No tops where undergarments can be seen
 - For Men: No shirts with sides cut out
 - While wearing swim attire, shirts must be worn when walking to and from the lake
 - Shirts, shorts, and shoes must be worn when inside all buildings
 - Hats may not be worn during devotions, speeches, or discussion groups

If we feel the clothing is inappropriate, you will be asked to change.

- No water or food fights in the camp facilities and dining hall.
- No illegal drugs, smoking, vaping, chewing tobacco, or alcohol.
- No over-the-counter sleep inhibitors such as No-Doze, Monster, etc.
- No knives, matches, lighters, fireworks, or any type of weapon.
- Cell phones will be allowed during free time and games for phone calls or taking pictures. They may not be used during speeches or discussion groups, except for singing and Bible reading (apps/websites). Chaperones have the right to take away phones if they feel you are abusing this privilege.
- Quiet time follows devotions. After devotions, all conventioners must stay in their buildings. If you leave your building after devotions, you may be asked to leave the convention.
- Proper Christian conduct includes godly speech and respect for other people and their property. We intend to show respect to the camp and others' belongings. Any broken items will be paid for by the person(s) responsible for the damage.
- Conventioners and chaperones will be expected to stay on the Camp Cedarmore grounds at all time and off of all private property.
- No boys in girls' (buildings/floors) rooms; no girls in boys' (buildings/floors) rooms.
- No pranks or vandalism
- If you are asked to leave the convention, you and your parents are responsible for getting you home.

Discipline Statement: Any young person expelled from the present year's convention will not be allowed to attend future conventions pending an appeal to the Federation Board. The young person who is expelled will be held responsible for sending a letter of apology addressed to the Federation Board and the host church steering committee showing true remorse for their misconduct. Upon receiving this letter, the Federation Board will grant the young person reinstatement toward future convention.
